

APM Endorsement Program

Purpose of the Endorsement program

Through an endorsement program it is hoped that the patient will always receive an optimal, consistent and reliable outcome, regardless of where they attend a clinic for ISPM.

This will be achieved by ensuring our Fscan clinicians understand not just the technology, but how to achieve the optimal clinical outcomes, as outlined in both the 2018 Diabetic Foot Australia guidelines and the 2019 International Working Group on the Diabetic Foot guidelines.

Endorsement Program Levels

Level 1: Endorsed F-scan Expert, cost $495per year

In order to join the program and become an Endorsed Fscan Expert you will need to provide the following:

Possess relevant allied health qualification.

Current membership of a governing body of your profession.

You will be required to submit two Fscan reports as generated by the Fscan sw per year. The reports need to demonstrate a positive change in line with aforementioned guidelines, targeting 200kPa or a reduction by 30% of the Peak Pressure.

You will also need to attend and participate in one Endorsed Fscan workshop of at least 2.5 hours per year and a copy of certificate of attendance will be required.

Level 2: Endorsed F-scan Expert Tutor, cost $800 per year

To achieve the level 2: Endorsed Fscan Expert Tutor, you will need to be an Fscan Endorsed Expert, having completed 2 years of being a level 1 expert in succession.
